Dear colleague,

The Mediterranean Geosciences Union organizes the 4TH MedGU Annual Meeting at the University of Barcelona (Spain) in collaboration with other universities in the Mediterranean region and with Springer Nature as publishing partner.

The proceedings papers (limited to 5 Word pages including figures and references) will be published in the Springer/IEREK ASTI Book Series (indexed in Scopus and SCImago) and extended papers will be published in Special Issues of journals (indexed in Scopus and Web of Science).

To learn more about the event and its Publication Plan, please visit our website (2024.medgu.org). Additionally, you can see videos of past MedGU Annual Meetings on YouTube.

On this occasion, we are pleased to invite you to take part in the conference (in-person or virtually) and share/discuss your latest research findings.

Submission deadline: 30 June 2024

MedGU-24 Keypoints:

- The MedGU Annual Meeting is one of the region's largest international geoscience meetings, with an average of 600 geoscientists attending in person and virtually each year.
- The MedGU Annual Meeting aims to provide a forum where geoscientists, especially early career researchers, can present and discuss their findings with experts in all fields of geosciences.
- The 4TH MedGU Annual Meeting will take place on 25–28 November 2024 in Barcelona, Spain.
- It will go ahead in person but there will be a possibility to present online.
- It will feature talks and panels covering a diverse range of geoscience and geoscience-society topics.
- Abstract submissions (max. 350 words) will be accepted until 30 June 2024. Before submitting on Performer system, please read the Guidelines.
- The MedGU-24 encourages submissions of research works from all regions of the world.
- We are planning workshops, a social program, and a field trip, where participants can take a little time out to explore the wonders of the geological sites of the Spanish Pyrenees.
- Contact us, if you need more information: contact@medgu.org.

We invite you to come to Barcelona and participate in an exciting conference in a stimulating environment!
